

*"Everything you think, say, do and feel matters because ...
that's how you create the future."*

Introduction

Pat Heydlauff (Pat Hide loff) is President of Heydlauff Enterprises – a company dedicated to building engaged focused workforce and persona home environments. A non-profit industry veteran CEO, Pat is a pioneer "flow of focus" organizational environment and leadership strategist.

Her programs are groundbreaking; filled with strategies and techniques designed to empower organizations to build and strengthen their existing workplace environments so that focused engagement is unleashed increasing productivity, performance and profitability in the workplace and peace, prosperity and connection in the home.

A "focused engagement" thought leader and Feng Shui expert known as the Renaissance Woman, Pat's writing is in demand and has been published in numerous periodicals. She walks her talk and lives every day with the philosophy that "everything you think, say, feel and do matters ... because that's how you create your tomorrows."
